Frontier can support you by....

Explaining your choices so you know what is good or bad about them so you can make your decision

Assisting you to find what you need to have a rewarding life

Explaining your rights to you

Explaining what responsibilities you have when you use your rights

Helping you in your home or community

Respecting you as a person

Helping you deal with things that upset or bother you

Helping you tell others what you want or need

Making sure that you are supported to be as much a part of the community as you want to be

Asking you what you think

Asking you what you need

But Most of All:

Just spend time getting to know YOU and helping you enjoy everyday life!!
